

I will Say

"I always had trouble in my stomach. I took some Peruna. Since then I feel all right. Only two bottles of Peruna were sufficient for my case." So says Mr. W. H. Strauss, 1023 Spruce St., Easton, Pa.

Here is another case of stomach trouble. A mining surveyor. A man fifty-seven years old. He took Peruna for chronic stomach trouble. The result is he says: "I feel that I am good for twenty-five years more." His name and address is: Mr. William Pollis, Mayetta, Kas.

Mrs. S. E. Henderson, Pollockville, N. C., relates: "My trouble seemed mainly with my stomach. I was so bad that my mouth became affected. Gums would bleed every day. I took Peruna according to directions. My trouble all passed away in three months. I will praise Peruna as long as I live."

OIL FIELD AIR
SURE CURE FOR TUBERCULOSIS

MANY EAST SIDE PEOPLE
WILL TESTIFY TO CURATIVE
POWERS OF OIL AIR

Pemeta, Okla., Aug. 21.—Does living in the atmosphere of the oil field tend to cure tuberculosis? While an absolute test has not as yet been made officially by physicians it would be a difficult matter to make Joe and Sam Edwards believe otherwise than that it is a certain cure and they offer themselves as Exhibit A to prove it. They were "living skeletons," as they term it, and now they are robust, strong and healthy.

The Edwards brothers lived in a central west state, where they contracted tuberculosis. In fact, the disease was in the family, and they had inherited it. They had good positions, however, and held to their places as long as possible, believing that they would get better. This belief failed them, and finally they decided to try Colorado and other points in the extreme west.

"We had been in the west some time," said Joe Edwards recently, "and we were getting worse if anything. I had got down to 110 pounds and Sam couldn't pull that much on the scales. We had about decided to go back home and die, when Sam read in a newspaper that life in an oil field was healthful for persons having tuberculosis trouble. We decided to try it and we came direct to Oklahoma and to this oil field."

"We were not able to do work of any kind, at the start. But gradually we began improving, and it was not long before both of us were doing odd jobs of light work on several oil field leases. We had to work for we were almost out of money. Today we are both dressing tania, that one brand of oil field work that demands the strongest arms and backs and a robust constitution. And we have got them."

The Clerk Guaranteed It

"A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of my clerks, 'have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'if this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said he was cured," writes J. H. Perry & Co., Salt Creek, Va. Obtainable everywhere.

PLAYED POKER, DRANK HIGH BALLS: WAS WILLING TO CHLOROFORM HUBBY

Chicago, Aug. 21.—When Mrs. William Poske went to the beaches she wasn't satisfied with enjoying a cool dip in the surf by herself and a stroll along the walks unaccompanied.

But, instead, she would make the acquaintance of "unknown" men and impose upon their seeming good nature to while away her time. Also she seemed to have an affliction of the eyes which caused rapid blinking. She even exercised this affliction on "L" guards and other unsuspecting grownups.

The telephone wasn't a stranger to her, for one night didn't she call up a certain party—

"I'll come if I have to chloroform my husband."

And, as for lemonades, Highballs were her specialty, and a pousse cafe or a shoe gin flz wouldn't come in amiss now and then. Straight whisky was her side kick.

Besides, she never cared for modesty. Eve's costume in the Garden of Eden to her was no worse than the pajamas and blanket of an Arizona square in mid-August.

But the main thing must not be forgotten. She could hold a pair of tongs against a pot full and fill with foam every time.

Now all this is true if the cross bill and answer to a divorce suit which was filed yesterday by William Poske to the petition of Mrs. Nellie Poske is the truth, as he swore it was.

ALLIES WILL MAKE
COTTON CONTRABAND

to prevent ruinous depression of prices and minimize hardships to cotton planters.

The allies contend the cotton state has been prepared for a contraband order by reduction of acreage. Some of the cotton interests, allied quarters acknowledged, may be affected and for that reason it has been decided to stand behind the market. The principal reason for declaring cotton contraband is that it is one of the principal sources of smokeless powder. How the allies propose to support the cotton market is not explained here.

PENNSYLVANIA MINISTER
DEFENDS ACTION IN WRIT-ING TO STRANGE GIRLS

Erie, Pa., Aug. 21.—"I am lonesome. All I want is some one to love me and be loved by me."

This was the statement made by the Rev. Edward C. Haynes when charged with having written scores of letters to Erie girls whom he had never met, asking them to marry him.

He is a Congregational minister and says he is in search of a soulmate. Recently he visited his son in Fitchburg, Mass., and from there started correspondence with a score of Erie girls.

In these letters he would ask the young woman if she was not the one by that name who he and his wife had met at Oberammergau at the "Passion Play" of 1910. Several young women from this city answered, the letters being sent to Lowell, Mass. Haynes' wife died November 3, 1914, in this city.

CREEKMORE, ALLEGED KING OF 'LEGGERS, OUT ON BOND

Muskogee, Okla., Aug. 21.—Fifteen minutes after W. J. Creekmore had been released from jail he had sent a pair of shoes and some clothing to one of his fellow prisoners, Sam Finley, held on a charge of introducing whiskey.

The police say that all the time he was held in the jail he was good-natured and had a word for every one, and that when he was released he laughed and joked with the police in the office of the jail.

Immediately after his release Creekmore telephoned to Joplin and requested that $20,000 be sent here "in the morning sure." As an afterthought, presumably, the police declared, Creekmore added, "You'd better send $500 more. I want to pay two or three little bills here."

He left the jail in company with his wife.
